Keaton is also the only person not nominated for playing a real person, living or dead, and I think the Oscars need to reward original characters.

It astounds me how Richard Linklater managed to keep this such a secret all those years, and how he directed School of Rock, A Scanner Darkly, and two Before movies simultaneously.

It should have been called How to Train Your Dragon (If You Didn't Get it Right the First Time).

Arquette won the GG for Boyhood, and I'm gonna watch it today so my opinion can actually count for sump n. See if any of these songs ring a bell.

Aside from complaints that it only focuses on a stereotypical white family (which I understand in this diversity-heavy day and age), not everyone will relate to the film.

s sake Look, I love Meryl, but is it really necessary to reward her for man, Mason, from age 5 to age 18.

Girl, and while she rocked the house, she still probably not going to win.

I'm too wimpy for American Sniper (though I'll probably be looped into seeing
