Some woopy doos and wtf's ensued.

And yes, I am a little upset by this year's lack of diversity, but like I said, it is what it is.

Both play intensely dislikeable characters in their respective movies, but while Norton was just a pompous dickhead, Simmons was a cruel beast who makes R.

Someone could have died, someone could have up and left, Linklater could have gone through DPs like Spinal Tap went through drummers, who knows, but fortunately, all went swimmingly.

For kids like me, who are the same age as Mason, Boyhood is also a huge walk down memory lane! Does anyone here remember the Motorola Razr? This silly musical craze? That's okay.

She's a wonderful actress and has been passed up for far too long! Also, in a rare move, Marion Cotillard has been nominated for a foreign language performance.

Kaguya, are completely new to me.

it under a Xanax cocktail), I'm watching Boyhood today (woo ha), and I'd

I always say it's the worst feeling in the world when you feel someone else's pain, but you can't relate because you haven't dealt with what the other person is dealing with.

Okay, I know what you're thinking.
