I am a little upset about Ava DuVernay being snubbed, but I don't want to get into politics/race/gender/all that fun stuff here.

I don't know if I should even bother reviewing Boyhood.

Even if I couldn't relate to all of Mason's trials and tribulations, I still connected to the film on some levels.

Jones for The Theory of Everything Julianne Moore for Still Alice Rosamund Pike for Gone

Tr's magnifique! Best Actor in a Supporting Role Robert Duvall for The Judge Ethan Hawke for Boyhood

Edward Norton for Birdman Mark Ruffalo for Foxcatcher J.K.

There are moments where the story appears to lose steam, and I was not satisfied with the ending at all.

At least, it appears that way.

If anything, her performance in 2004's A Series of Unfortunate Events was far superior.

Anyway, this will go to Richard Linklater, no contest.

They did not show Boyhood at all, and it took them FOR-FREAKING-EVER to get Birdman, but they showed fecal matter like The Identical, Left Behind, and Kirk Cameron's Saving Christmas as soon as they came out.
